CHANGES. . .CHANGES. . .CHANGES Welcoming the Roman Missal Third Edition

Dear Parish Family,

You may have already heard of some changes that have been approved by Rome and are taking place about the responses and some of the prayers we say during Mass. Here are some excerpts from the booklet called “Understanding the Revised Mass” Texts 2010 Archdiocese of Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications. Paul Turner.

I am writing you to invite you to embark on this journey as a parish community for discovering a richer meaning for our Eucharistic Celebration. I will be using this section of the bulletin to provide you with more information and catechesis about the changes. We will have the new revised version of the now called Sacramentary (to be called Roman Missal) with the implementation date to be available in the printed form some time next year.

“Why and How are the Text for Mass Being Revised? New Words. . . Deeper Meaning, Same Mass.

The words we say and hear at every Mass are about to change. Mass will remain the same, but the sound will be different. Most of these words are English translations of texts first composed in Latin. The changes will not affect the scripture readings, the Prayer of the Faithful, or your favorite hymns. The new translation pertains to the words we speak or sing at every Mass, and to the prayers that the priest recites alone from the Sacramentary. The revised translations will have more depth. As people say and hear the new words, they should appreciate even more the value of the faith they hold so dear.

Biblical Roots: The words of the Mass frequently allude to passages from the Bible. The new translation will bring more of these allusions to light. Worshippers will grasp more clearly that the traditional words we use for prayer arise from expressions in the Word of God. The texts will express more clearly why we pray, why we hope, and how we present ourselves before God.

Faithfulness to the Latin: Overall, the revised translation is trying to achieve a greater adherence to the original Latin that the former did. The translation currently in force has served us well. It helped entire communities make the jump from praying Mass in Latin to praying it in English. It showed us how a good translation can enhance the prayer of individuals and of entire congregations. It gave us a better understanding of the faith we share. It laid a foundation for worship upon which the Church is now building anew.

Poetic Texts: Many of the Latin prayers are quite lovely. They were crafted with a poetry of vocabulary, rhythm, structure and sentiment. Much of this is lost to people who have not studied Latin. Anyone from any culture can appreciate a painting or a sculpture, a symphony, or a waltz. But only those who know a particular language can recognize its poetry and the style of its prose. People do understand that there are many ways to say things. We use a more formal tone with teachers than with friends. We use different sentences in conversation that we do in writing. The same goes for trying to translate a book into a movie, you understand the movie so much better if you have read the book. A good translation requires more than the right word—it needs a certain feel. The new translation of the Mass is striving for that kind of improvement. After a reassessment of the original, it is trying to make the translation better.

This is why some of the changes will seem rather small, while others are considerably larger. For example, the Lamb of God is not changing at all. But the first part of the Gloria has been completely rewritten. The guiding principle is to achieve a translation that better evokes what the Latin says. Because that principle has been applied to the entire Missal, some changes are smaller than others. You may also notice a difference in attitude. Some of the prayers will sound humbler, a bit more modest in the presence of an awesome God. They acknowledge the majesty of God and the boldness of this entire enterprise: human beings talking to the God who made us. Other changes have music in mind. Many of the sentences are being drafted in a way that their rhythms and words can be sung well in English.

Translation: Almost everyone will find some parts they love and others they don't like at first. You can count on some frustration when the revised texts appear. But after some usage, they should become as familiar as the current ones, enabling us to pray with more purpose when we gather for Mass. You will not start using it in church until the entire text of the Missal becomes ready in a few years”.

Let us pray to the Holy Spirit, may He who has been our companion since the founding of The Church, continue to guide us as we make our Eucharistic Celebrations more uplifting, richer in meaning through texts and symbols.

Greetings and Blessings,
Rev. Cesar Vega M.
Pastor

PRAYER IS A MOVING FORCE in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood or religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations.

“Lord, your Church is in need. Touch the hearts of many within our parish with the desire to serve you.

Call forth from this community sisters, brothers, deacons, priests and lay leaders.

Help us to live lives that will nurture childhood trust into adult commitment.

May this parish be a source of hope and a source of ministers for your Church, your people and your world. Amen
Serra for priestly and religious vocations.

PRO LIFE

We will not win the abortion debate until we finally unmask “pro-choice”. Every day we see what pro-choice really means! The whole concept is rooted in deception, greed, selfishness, and horrendous violence against both women and unborn babies. As time passes, we find nothing but death and destruction in its wake. Choose life.

Prayer Walk against Abortion

On Tuesday afternoons from 2:00-3:00, we are in front of Planned Parenthood on Tieton Dr. We also pray in front of the Cedar River Abortion Clinic on “E” St. If you will get in touch with me I will put you on our “call” list and let you know the days and times that we will be out there. Usually we ask that you join us for one hour, but whatever time you can be there is appreciated. We must be a voice for those who have none. Please call the office and leave your name and phone number. Thank you. Rosie

Let's Pray!

I'm looking to fill half-hour time frames on Mondays between 6 pm and 9 pm once a month to help bring a positive transformation to Yakima. Prayer references will be provided. This is a great way to start the practice of praying for something specific. Many of us are looking for a reason to “get away from it all” for just a little while. Why not spend it in prayer. A half an hour goes by so fast! Give Lori a call at 965-3471 or email at lori.emard@holyyfamilyyakima.org to sign up for a time.

SENIOR LIFE

Summer is the time for anniversaries so blessings on all who are celebrating their wedding vows! “Just as the Lord Jesus Christ is the ‘faithful witness’ ... and the supreme realization of the unconditional faithfulness with which God loves his people, so Christian couples are called to be faithful to each other forever, beyond every trial and difficulty.” (Pope John Paul II)

So we pray: God the eternal Father keep you in love with each other, so that peace of Christ may stay with you and be always in your home.

For those of you, who celebrate your anniversary separated from your beloved by death, be comforted in the knowledge that love is forever in the Lord. Peace be with you!

There is a fundraising yard sale on Friday, July 23rd to support the work of the Dispute Resolution Center (DRC) in bringing peace to our families and communities. For more information on this event or on services that are available go to www.drtyakima.org. If you would like to donate sale items, please contact Deacon Jim at 945-5432 or holyseniors@gmail.com

Baby (only) gift bag donation: Have you recently had a baby shower or find that you have a lot of baby gift bags around your home? Holy Family Elizabeth Ministry would be happy to take these empty gift bags off your hands. Please drop them off in the Elizabeth Ministry donation box located in the church foyer behind the welcome booth or leave them at the parish office – thank you!

Are you someone who would appreciate ‘connecting’ with a parishioner regarding miscarriage? Please call the Parish Office for helpful information and resources. Celebrate Sister Janet Strong Anniversary

It is my pleasure to invite you to the celebration of Sister Janet Strong's 25th jubilee of vows as a Diocesan Hermit, Sunday, July 25th, at St. Paul Cathedral, at the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

This is an historic occasion, as Sister Janet was among the first to become a diocesan hermit under the new code of canon law which allows persons to pronounce vows as diocesan hermits. On the feast of the Annunciation, 1998, I received the transfer of Sister Janet's vows into the Diocese of Yakima.

As a diocese, we are indebted to Sister Janet in a special way, since her mission as a diocesan hermit is to pray for the world, and in particular, for the needs of this diocese where we are privileged to have her prayerful presence among us.
